

MEXICO DENIES U. S. STATEMENTS; WANTS ARMY TAKEN FROM MEXICO

Insulting Note From Mexico Accuses American Government and Its Generals of Bad Faith; Says Funston and Scott Acted Without Honor; Says America Guilty of Discourtesies; Impugns Motives for Huerta's Arrest.

MEXICO CITY, Mex., June 30.—The foreign office today issued a memorandum in reply to secretary Lansing's recent note in which the correctness of assertions in the communication from Washington were repeatedly denied. The memorandum declared that the United States had no right to maintain its armed forces on Mexican soil.

The memorandum contains 35 counts. Although not in the form of a direct reply to the Washington note, it is considered equivalent to an answer to that document.

It expresses surprise that the Washington government should have been pained at the tone and the contents of the Carranza document, since it maintains that the United States has sent to the constitutional government not only one but many discourteous and even overbearing notes.

Emphatically reiterating the Mexican government's position denying the right of the United States to keep armed bodies in Mexico, the memorandum denies energetically that the Mexican government has protected bandits who had committed depredations in the United States and defies Washington to produce proof of the assertion.

Blame for the Santa Ysabel massacre is placed on the so-called impulsive and irascible disposition of Charles Watson, general manager of the Cusihuicuil Mining company; and Gen. Scott and Gen. Funston are accused of bad faith and lack of honor in misleading Gen. Obregon in an alleged aversive reply regarding the crossing of American troops into Mexico after the Glenn Springs raid.

The memorandum asserts that while it is true that the United States arrested Gen. Huerta, the motive which prompted this act was not a purpose of aiding the Constitutional government, but because the United States feared that Gen. Huerta was plotting with Germany.

The note concludes by declaring that the presence of American troops in Mexico invites rather than prevents bandit raids along the border.

The memorandum was issued at the same time that the foreign office authorized publication of secretary's Lansing's recent note.

MEXICANS BURY BOYD AND ADAR

Bodies of Officers in Carri-zal Fight Interred in Cemetery There.

The bodies of Capt. Charles T. Boyd and First Lieut. Henry H. Adair of the 10th United States cavalry, who were killed in the battle at Carrizal last Friday, were buried in the Carrizal cemetery, according to word received from the Santo Domingo ranch by the owner in El Paso. The exact number of American dead has not been ascertained. Either 15 or 16 Americans were killed and 10 were buried by the Mexicans. The remainder unaccounted for had wandered from the scene and are thought to have perished on the desert near the scene of battle, the ranchman said.

The battle was almost at the Santo Domingo ranch headquarters. Two dead Mexicans and one dead negro were found at the ranch gate after the fight.

Twenty-six Mexicans killed. From the information received from the ranch Friday morning, 25 Mexicans of the force of 315 were killed. Only two horses of the 10th cavalry were killed, while 35 of the Mexican cavalry mounts were shot down.

Capt. Boyd was killed while advancing with his men at 35 yards from the Mexican machine guns. A bullet plowed through his jaw, mutilating the entire right side of his face. Lem Spillbury, Mexican scout with the expedition, reported that he had heard Capt. Boyd's body had been cremated by the Mexicans, but the report of burial seems to be more reliable.

Army authorities in El Paso had no information that Gavira had returned. Gen. Gavira has been absent from Juarez for several weeks. A report was circulated that he had been shot at Mexico City by order of Gen. Alvaro Obregon on account of his friendly attitude toward the United States.

CLAIM MEXICAN SHOT BY TROOP

Gen. Gonzales Says Customs
Man Opposite Ysleta Fired Upon.

A Mexican line rider belonging to the Carranza customs service was shot and killed Thursday night by a squad of American soldiers, who fired across the Rio Grande into Mexican territory near Ysleta, 12 miles east of El Paso, according to a report received by Gen. Gonzales in Juarez Friday.

This report was denied by Capt. George Vidner, commander of the Eighth cavalry troop at Ysleta. Capt. Vidner said everything was quiet in the vicinity of Ysleta Thursday night and that there had been no firing reported to him from any part of the border near Ysleta.

Says Eight Killed. Mexican officials claimed that the Mexican named Juan Moreno, was riding along the Mexican side of the river in the performance of his duty with a fellow customs guard, when the Americans opened fire without warning. The story, as told by the survivor, placed the number of Americans at eight.

Considerable indignation was felt in Juarez over the affair, and Gen. Gonzales sent a complaint to Gen. Bell.

Gen. Bell said he was making an investigation of the reported shooting of the Mexican, but had received nothing definite regarding the report.
